1994 PREVIEW

Although they may have to alter their game plan and it may take a little longer than originally planned, the Northern Iowa Panthers fully intend to assume their customary role as a Missouri Valley Conference powerhouse by the end of the 1994 season.

The reason for the change in plans is the preseason news that Natalie Walters, the Panthers' most potent offensive weapon and first team all-conference performer last year as a junior, has been sidelined for the season due to a back injury. A certain preseason all-conference pick for '94, Walters enjoyed the finest offensive season of any junior in school history, collecting 425 kills and 362 digs to lead the squad in both categories.

"Her absence is going to have an enormous impact on our team," said UNI head coach Irdage Ahrabi-Fard. "One player can make such a difference in volleyball. Losing a fifth-year senior, one of the top players in the conference, and trying to replace her with a newcomer—it's not going to be the same team."

Northern Iowa came out of last season playing its best volleyball, having advanced to the Final Four of the National Invitational Championship. With the anticipated return of 87 percent of its offense from that 24-6 team and all four of its all-conference players, the Panthers were already being viewed as the team to beat for '94.

And make no mistake, that could certainly still be the case. In his 14th season, Ahrabi-Fard has always found a way to put his Panthers in contention.

"One of the signs of a good program is that one person should not make or break your team," he said. "I think the impact is going to be significant, but we'll recover from it. Natalie was developed through our program and we'll just have to do the same with some more people. Just like last year, we'll improve with every match and at the end of the season, we're going to be up there."

Setters

The Panthers are in great shape with Kara Galer directing the attack as she has the last two years. After a fine freshman season, she emerged as a premier setter a year ago, garnering more votes than her league counterparts in being voted to the all-Missouri Valley second team. She capped off the season by being voted to the all-tournament team at the National Invitational Championship. The 5-10 junior has started all but one match the past two seasons, missing that due to injury, and led UNI to a 40-16 record in those starts.

Junior Kara Galer

Her backup will likely be freshman walkon Mindy Workman of Council Bluffs, but freshman Alexa Curran could battle for the reserve spot in addition to seeing duty in the back row.

Outside Hitters

With the loss of Walters, much of the offensive load will be carried by sophomore Kate Galer and junior Jill Schoeberl. Galer, Kara's twin sister, was named the Missouri Valley's top freshman a year ago and was arguably the Panthers' top offensive force at the end of the season. She displayed plenty of poise for a first-year player and ranked in the top 10 in the Valley in four categories—kills, hitting percentage, digs and aces.

Schoeberl was a part-time starter a year ago, but no returner played in more games. She is a lefthander who has made steady improvement each season and whose time appears to have arrived. She improved greatly as a sophomore, averaging over two kills per game and hitting at a .251 clip.

"Jill just keeps getting better and has improved her back row play to the point where we may play her the full rotation because she also attacks very well from the back row," Ahrabi-Fard said.

Freshman Kerri Eich will challenge for a spot on the outside along with juniors Diane Cuttell and Tina Parkin, and freshman walkon Erin Long.

"Kerri is very aggressive and very strong, but she's a newcomer to our program,"

Ahrabi-Fard said. "Her playing time will depend on how fast she develops."

With the team blessed with depth at middle hitter, Cuttell and Parkin could see playing time outside. Cuttell has played sparingly in the middle the past two seasons while Parkin is a juco transfer who set numerous block records at Lincoln College.

Middle Hitters

The Panthers' deepest position is anchored by team captain Carrie Shurr, who returns for her final season as an intimidating force in the middle and team leader with her fierce intensity on the floor. She has missed about a month of each of the past two seasons due to an ankle injury. Despite the absence last season, she still ranked 16th in the nation and led the conference in block average. As a testament to the respect she has gained around the Missouri Valley, Shurr received honorable mention to the all-conference team despite missing seven league matches.

"Carrie is in the best condition of any player we have and I can't believe she's not going to have a tremendous senior year," said Ahrabi-Fard.

While Shurr was sidelined a year ago, sophomore Kate Marovich stepped in admirably and is an early season favorite to nail down the starting spot vacated by the graduation of Tricia Mills. Marovich gained valuable experience a year ago, averaging over two kills and a block per game while starting in Shurr's place.

The aforementioned Cuttell and Parkin also could see action in the middle.

Defensive Specialist

Junior Michelle Becker is the most experienced of a quartet of back row players. She saw considerable playing time as a sophomore and figures to play an important role again, particularly in crucial serving situations.

Junior Deann Moeller played in five matches last season after joining the team in mid-season, but could see an expanded role this year. Curran and freshman Shishonee Weber also will battle for playing time in the back row and could help out as a backup to Galer at setter.

Summary

Although the loss of Walters will certainly be felt, the Panthers have plenty of talented youngsters who gained much experience a year ago. Look for Ahrabi-Fard to have his troops in the middle of the Missouri Valley Conference race when it hits the home stretch and challenge for the league title and their first trip to the NCAA Tournament in three years. ■

HEAD COACH

IRADGE AHRABI-FARD

A 1965 graduate of UNI, Ahrabi-Fard has long been involved in athletics on the international level. In his native Iran, he served as President of the Institution of Sports from 1967 thru 1969, head swimming coach for the men's and women's national teams from 1967 thru 1970, Executive Director of the Education Department of Sports Ministry in 1970, and Vice-Minister of Sports Ministry from 1977 thru 1978. He also served as special physical educator for the Crown Prince and Princess of Iran.

As an athlete, Ahrabi-Fard competed on the Iranian national volleyball team internationally and in the Asian Games. He also was a high jumper on the national track and field team and competed his freshman year at UNI.

He was a successful high school coach in several sports at Northern University

High School in Cedar Falls prior to taking the UNI job, earning various district, regional and state coach of the year honors in volleyball, track and field, and swimming.

Ahrabi-Fard has authored several books on volleyball coaching and is a sought-after speaker/clinician throughout the country.

After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education, Ahrabi-Fard received his master's in physical education from UNI in 1966 and his doctorate in physical education and educational administration from the University of Minnesota in 1975.■

Coaches thrive on new challenges and Northern Iowa's Iradge Ahrabi-Fard is no different. The Panther head man fell one match short of taking his team to the Missouri Valley Conference title in the team's second year in the league a year ago.

After taking the Panther program to the top of the Gateway Conference three times in the final six years of the league's existence, Ahrabi-Fard now chases that first MVC title after UNI placed second in the league tournament last season.

Recognized as one of the most successful collegiate coaches in the Midwest, Ahrabi-Fard enters his 14th season at Northern Iowa sporting a 342-121 record. He collected career win #300 at the Gateway Conference Tournament in 1991 against rival Illinois State.

Under his guidance, the Panthers have reached new heights over the last nine seasons, recording a 227-58 mark with four conference championships, three NCAA Championship Tournament berths and three National Invitation appearances, including a trip to the N.I.V.C. Final Four last year. Ahrabi-Fard's teams have chalked up at least 20 victories in 11 of his 13 seasons. He was voted Gateway Coach of the Year in 1985 and 1987, and earned recognition as Midwest Region Coach of the Year by his peers in 1985.

MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE

The Missouri Valley Conference, the oldest athletic conference west of the Mississippi River, begins its third year sponsoring women's athletics. The MVC took on a new look in 1992 when it officially began administering women's programs into what had been — for 85 years — a league which sponsored men's athletic programs only.

The St. Louis-based MVC began operating as a basketball conference in 1907, and through the years has produced many individual and team national champions in basketball and several other sports. The league merged with the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference, which concluded a decade of excellence in women's athletics.

The Missouri Valley was formed on January 12, 1907, when eight administrators representing five midwestern state universities got together in a hotel room in Kansas City. In the fall of that year, basketball became the first competitive sport in what was then the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The season ended with the crowning of a conference champion, which was the first step for a league which has had four teams win national basketball titles, sent 17 others to the NCAA Final Four, and scores of players into professional basketball.

In recent years, the league has built a reputation as one of the premier conferences in college baseball. Since 1980, some 24 MVC teams have competed in the NCAA baseball tournament, with seven advancing to the College World Series in the last 11 years.

But basketball is not the only sport that has been around a long time in the MVC. Last spring, the league contested its 81st outdoor track and field championship, while intercollegiate tennis in the Valley has been contested for 76 years.

Those programs, plus the other current sponsored sports of golf

(51 years), baseball (47), cross country (37), indoor track and field (27), and soccer (3), have helped establish the Missouri Valley as one of the most respected conferences in the nation.

Through the years, there have been 32 colleges or universities representing 13 states which have been a part of the Missouri Valley. Membership has stabilized in the past decade, and now a league that has survived in what has been a volatile environment for the past few years has entered a new era with women's athletics.

The Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis and volleyball.

Members of the MVC include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, the University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, Southwest Missouri State University, the University of Tulsa and Wichita State University. The University of Evansville became the 32nd member of the Missouri Valley Conference in November of 1993. The Purple Aces officially joined the MVC last July 1, elevating membership in the conference to 11 institutions, the highest total in league history.■

THIS IS NORTHERN IOWA

A campus-wide commitment to great teaching lies at the heart of the University of Northern Iowa's reputation for providing exceptional undergraduate education, as well as complementary programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels. Building on its historic strength in teacher education, the University has developed a number of outstanding programs in business, natural sciences, humanities and fine arts, and social and behavioral sciences.

Northern Iowa prides itself on providing a student-centered educational experience. The University's medium size allows it to offer the faculty, facilities and academic choices of a major university, while retaining a friendly, small college atmosphere. Small classes enable the University to foster one-on-one working relationships between faculty and students. More than 90 percent of UNI's classes have 50 or fewer students.

Students enter the University well-prepared, demonstrated by their selection of high school courses and rank in class. In recent years, over 90 percent of the entering freshmen ranked in the top 50 percent of their high school classes, with about 60 percent ranking in the top 30 percent. The average undergraduate arrives at UNI with an ACT score of 23.

U.S. News and World Report has recognized the University by ranking it seventh among the top 15 colleges and universities and second among best buys in the Midwest Region in its America's Best Colleges Book. It also recognized Northern Iowa as one of two "up-and-coming" Midwest regional universities.

The College of Business Administration has become the largest undergraduate business school in Iowa. The College's Department of Accounting is ranked among the 10 best in the country by educators and accounting professionals. In a national survey of 400 accounting faculty, Northern Iowa ranked as one of their top programs.

Considered a long-time leader in the field of teacher education, UNI has implemented several programs that continue this tradition of excellence. The Regents' Center for Early Developmental Education is a leading setting for research and training in the education of young children. The Center is the only educational resource of its kind in Iowa.

Northern Iowa's 19 men's and women's intercollegiate athletics programs compete at the NCAA Division I level with major conference affiliations. The Panthers boast a nationally recognized coaching staff to maintain consistently competitive programs.

The Northern Iowa campus combines the grandeur of early 1900s architecture with striking, modern building designs that have characterized an impressive growth period over the past dozen years. The attractive, park-like campus contains more than 40 major buildings on 861 acres, yet is compact enough to cross in a 10-minute walk.

UNI is located in Cedar Falls, an inviting and historic community of about 35,000 people. Together with the adjacent city of Waterloo, the metropolitan area has a culturally diverse population of 115,000 and combines big city opportunities with small town friendliness. Cedar Falls/Waterloo is a center for industry, finance, commerce, recreation and cultural activities for northeast Iowa.

The University was founded in 1876 and is one of three state-assisted universities administered by the Iowa State Board of Regents.
